

U.S. Embassy Accra The Ambassador's Special Self-Help Program

The purpose of this grant program is to provide small-scale assistance to Ghanaian communities as part of an ongoing commitment by the U.S. government to support Ghanaian-driven development activities at the local level. This program is highly competitive and funding is limited. Not all applications are awarded a grant.

Please read the criteria below thoroughly before completing the application form.

Eligibility Criteria

- The project must be initiated by the community and should benefit the community by increasing income or improving living or social conditions. If the project is designed to generate income, it must be truly community-based and not a for-profit enterprise or sole proprietorship, and the project must have a plan for equitable distribution of any income generated.
- Applicants must be a non-profit organization, NGO, or CBO registered with the Government of Ghana, or a community association formed at least one year before the date of application.
- The proposed project should be a single activity that helps to improve basic economic or social conditions at the community level. Projects should be administered at the community level.
- The project should be sustainable and not require continued support after the one-time contribution from the Special Self-Help Program.
- Substantial community participation is required during the project. Contributions may include labor, materials, equipment, land, buildings, or funding.
- Projects must be within the ability of the community to operate and maintain sustainably.
- All projects must be completed within one calendar year of the grant award date.
- The maximum grant submission allowed is $12,000, converted to Ghana cedis at the prevailing exchange rate. However, it is rare that projects are funded at that amount. Projects typically range between US$1,000 and $10,000.

Special Self-Help Program funds CANNOT be used for:

- ⊗ Religious, political, military, law enforcement, police, or prison-related activities;
- ⊗ Personal training, research, publishing materials, or projects that solely provide trainings;
- ⊗ Costs associated with events or ceremonies, including but not limited to, alcohol, entertainment, dancers, poets, musicians, venue rental, or food and drink;
- ⊗ Administrative or recurring operating costs, including, but not limited to, transportation costs, per diem, administrative fees, rent, salaries, electric bills, or school fees;
- ⊗ Investments in personal businesses, for-profit enterprises, or sole-proprietorships;
- ⊗ Activities with unmitigated or negative environmental consequences;
- ⊗ Purchase of vehicles, office supplies, printers, copiers, computers, tablets, mobile phones, pesticides, herbicides, fungicides, surveillance equipment, luxury goods, or gambling equipment;
- ⊗ Activities that benefit any employee of the U.S. government.

Deadline for Application Submission: May 15, 2021

The U.S. Embassy in Accra receives hundreds of requests for support each year and funding is both limited and contingent on U.S. Congressional approval. We regret that not all projects can be funded even when the eligibility criteria and guidelines are met.
